

A DROP OF WATER

^A There's a drop of water on the wall ^C
And the drop's about to fall ^G
And it falls into a trickle ^D

And the trickle's flowing down ^A
Down, down to the ground, ^C
And the moss begins to grow ^G
Watch, watch, watch, watch the water flow ^D

And watch the current become a stream ^A ^C
Busting through the seams ^G
Cracking through the concrete ^D

Bending down the steel ^A
In a raging that is real ^C
A tearing torrent you can feel ^G
Feel the thunder growing, thunder underground ^D

And in my heart, the chains falling apart ^A ^C
The wildness in my soul ^G
And for once in life, for once in life I know ^D

I'm not alone, for the mountains make our bones ^A ^C
With the oceans in our blood ^G
Our feet planted, planted firmly in the mud ^D

We are alive, the burning embers in our eyes ^A ^C
The tingling touch upon our skin ^G
^D ^A

And in the heat of passion we begin to understand

That we are of this land, ^C

That we are part of Earth ^G

And when she's threatened we will fight for all we're worth ^D

We watch the dam, the dam come crashing down ^A ^C

Water rushing to the sea ^G

And now the river, now the river, now the river, now is free ^D ^A ^C ^G

The river is free. ^A ^C ^G

The river is free. ^A ^C ^G

The river is free. ^A ^C ^G

By Dana Lyons, copyright 1991

Reigning Records PO Box 2627, Bellingham, WA 98227 USA